World Turns

Secondhand Serenade

Turn slowly,
each day's so fast,
and I don't have the strength.
all I see,
is broken glass,
with shiny shards of pain.
and change is coming my Way,
but I still feel the same,
I still feel the same.(X2)
Hold structure,
don't let life pass,
let yourself be free.
Cause your much more,
forget the past,
I'm your enemy.
and change is coming my way,
but I still feel the same,
I still feel the same(X2)
It's quiet,

It's calm now,
I'm waiting,
to fall down.
you showed me,
that I need hope,
and I need change,
to know how it feels to be alone.. how does it feel to be alone?
And change is coming my way,
but I still feel the same,
I still feel the same(X6)
It's quiet,
it's calm now,
I'm waiting,
to fall down.
You showed me,
That I need hope,
that I need change
I still feel the same...
