Enjoy the Unknown

And One

My present to you
the sweetest tattoo
collapsing hearts in reddest blue you will be scared by signs on your pillow he's not you man - no!The poems I wrote revealing the code to my thoughts which help to note that I realized your deepest desire pick up the phone - enjoy the unknownEnjoy the unknownYour smile on tv means nothing to me 'cause you are all you could be and I feel sorry 'bout the death of your pet!Enjoy the unknown always always
enjoy the unknown
always always
the end is near
we're dying here
always always
enjoy the unknown
creep around your windowEnjoy the unknownEnjoy the unknown
always always
enjoy the unknown
always always
the end is near
we're dying here
always always
enjoy the unknown
creep around your windowEnjoy the unknown...
