

Esiwalk

Bernhoft

Work bent my back all wrong and left my fingers frozen
Hard tides have hit my coast; I'm walking in a battle haze
All might just fall apart, we're trapped in a ship sinking
No use but to sing the blues and make the end sound good
La, la, la, la I've been walking alone ever, ever since I was a little kid

I've been dependent on these sheer feet now

From before I could even think

I've been walking on home, now

from all the shadows of this old town

Ever since I was a little kid

Ever since I was a little kid

Can't get no sleep these days, I'm sure I left the candles burning

(Burning down the house, now)

Rain pouring through the roof did I remember to bolt the door

(Strangers coming to get ya)

I'm bathing in a cold sweat, I got to shape up this living

(Don't know which end to begin now)

No use but to sing the blues and make the end sound good

La, la, la, la I've been walking alone ever, ever since I was a little kid

I've been dependent on these sheer streets now

From before I could even think

from all the shadows of this old town

Ever since I was a little kid

Ever since I was a little kid

La, la, la, la And now all of this town is my home

Nobody ever showed me the way home

And now all of this town is my home
