Save Yourself

Birdy

Love shouldn't cost a thing
Tell me why
I'm paying for everything
Pretending it's fineHeaven knows, heaven knows
We're forever changing
Heaven knows, heaven knows
There's no way to save usLook at what we have become
Empty hearts that spare no one
Save yourself my darling
Just be gone by morningAfter all is said and done
Still this war cannot be won
Save yourself my darling
Kill the love that's dyingI don't know where you've been
Where you hide
You're here but I feel nothing
In your eyesHeaven knows, heaven knows
We're forever changing
Heaven knows, heaven knows
There's no way to save usLook at what we have become
Empty hearts that spare no one
Save yourself my darling
Just be gone by morningAfter all is said and done
Still this war cannot be won
Save yourself my darling
Kill the love that's dyingLook at what we have become
Empty hearts that spare no one
Save yourself my darling
Kill the love that's dying
