Just for a Moment

Jason Chen

just for a moment
can we escape
just for a moment
you'll find it come in place girl it ain't easy you'll stay away from your baby i just gotta say girl but
just for a moment
this is our song
this is the moment where you and i belong
girl i've been waiting
i know you're waiting no need to say it so close your eye girl just for a moment another state another city got me tired out flashing lights of cameras flickering as people shout it's not enough to hear my baby's voice on the phone cause the only thing i care about is back home alone they're telling me that i got plenty of time for a relationship told me to wait on it no,no cause ever since the day you came in my life you were my favorite don't know what to make of it oh, oh looking through photos of us in my hotel room after a couple shows you know i'll be back soon so many sleepless nights tossing turning alone ain't right girl you know i'm impatiently you're in that
just for a moment
can we escape
just for a moment
girl it ain't easy you'll stay away from your baby
just for a moment
this is our song
this is a moment where you and i belong
i know your waiting
no need to say it so close your eyes girl

just for a moment
traveling around the world without you has got me thinking about the day i found you i climb the highest mountain tops to sing your name swim to the ocean floor just so i can see your face if they are willing to give to kiss my baby's lips girl i ain't faking it no,no and every time they add more time on the road girl i'll be hating it i'm just not saying it oh, oh i almost left this life but you wouldn't let me cause you knew the music something that made me happy so girl this one's for you every word that i sing is true i'll be there beside you before you know it babe
just for a moment
just for a moment
you'll find it come it place
girl it ain't easy you'll stay away from your baby
just for a moment
this is our song
no need to say it
so close your eyes girl
just for a moment
