Golden Days

Drake Bell

These are the golden days
In this golden age that we're livin'
I show you a thousand ways
I show you how we take what we're givenAlright
YeahYou can say what you want
We don't need your permission
Cause you're so busy talkin'
That you don't even listen
You can do what you want
You know that we don't mind
You got the years
But we got the timeThese are the golden days
In this golden age that we're livin'
I show you a thousand ways
I show you how we take what we're givenYou can say what you want
We don't need your permission
With all the things that you hide
How do we look suspicious
Better look straight ahead
Don't look over your shoulder
Because you'll wake up to find
That we've taken overThese are the golden days
In this golden age that we're livin'
I show you a thousand ways
I show you how we take what we're given(We have the strength to survive)These are the golden days
In this golden age that we're livin'
I show you a thousand ways
I show you how we take what we're givenThese are the golden days
In this golden age that we're livin'
I show you a thousand ways
I show you how we take what we're givenDon't take what you're given
Don't take what you're given
We won't take what we're given
