Open Your Eyes

Stryper

Signs surround us
We fail to see
Through the simplicity of ourselvesOur crimes have found us
We try to escape every day from this cell
Theres no way out when youre living in hell
(Unless you)Open your eyes
Loosen the vice that constrains you
Open your eyes
Burn the disguise that you wearOpen your eyes
Break the unfaith that controls you
Open your eyes
The truth will be thereStones have crushed us
Water has rotted
The walls of our crumbling domainThe fire has rushed us
Its burning the waste that we grasp and cling to
There is a way out, but youll never climb through
(Unless you)Open your eyes
Loosen the vice that constrains you
Open your eyes
Burn the disguise that you wearOpen your eyes
Break the unfaith that controls you
Open your eyes
The truth will be there
