

She Likes Surprises

Soundgarden

 Girlie dress and making her best
 She makes up her hair for the 90s
 Dirty shoes and hiding her blues
She's dying to lose what she's finding So easy to leave it or take it in stride
 So easy to read when she's faking her smile
 She likes surprises, she likes surprises
 Anything in colorful disguises Lips and thighs abused by our eyes
 Acting surprised that she likes it
 Chocolate cream, an amphetamine
Torn at the seams, she's crying So easy to leave it or take it in stride
 So easy to read when she's faking her smile
 She likes surprises, she likes surprises
 Anything in colorful disguises She gets a little I guess
 She gets it more or less
 She likes surprises
Anything in colorful disguises So easy to leave it or take it in stride
 So easy to read when she's faking her smile
 She like surprises, she likes surprises
 Anything in colorful disguises
