

Both Ends Of The Candle

Willie Nelson

Each night I laid there in prison
I pictured a future so bright
For he was the one ray of sunshine
That shone through the darkest of nights
My son calls another man daddy
He'll never know my name nor my face
God only knows how it hurts me
For another to be in my place
Each night I laid there in prison
I pictured a future so bright
For he was the one ray of sunshine
That shone through the darkest of nights
Today his mother shares a new love
She just couldn't stand my disgrace
My son calls another man daddy
And longs for the love he can't replace
