

She Waits

Suicide City

The father smells his young the forcing has begun
the taste of breaking skin innocence he wins pressing against her fragile defense no more dancing her flowers missing

She waits alone to kill over and over
this haunting obsession
performed by aggression
she waits

I'm playing with your blood your disease isn't pure taking back the cure

pressing away
from moral decay
no more moving
her body's soothing

Beauty and blackout
pressure in doubt
suppressing perfection
change your taste
fuck your filled face
