

Sound of Change

Dirty Heads

I see you've been chasing your monsters
And they've been driving you bonkers
Just blinded with drunken launches
Of lights and blowin' they conscience
If you really want to juxtapose
And take a darker color with a blush of rose
And then you put it in your ink and watch it grow
Your mind is always open when your eyes are closed
Because your blind to color and your blind to greed
Blind to all the things you don't need
Then you find a minor and then you plant a seed
Then you nourish it a little and let it free

You're building it up
They're breaking it down
Want to give up
Keep holding your ground
You're turning it up
They're deaf to the sound
Oh the sound the sound of change

Here and now, the horns are playing
The victory sound, I live in the now
The sky is my home, and I live in the clouds
Now or never, bound forever
Making the change, making it better
I live for this shit, I love the pain
It's part if the journey, it's part of the game
I've been alone in the dark and the rain
I've seen the end and I wasn't afraid
I've been in tears and I wasn't ashamed
I hear a sound and the sound that I'm hearing is change

You're building it up
They're breaking it down
Want to give up
Keep holding your ground
You're turning it up
They're deaf to the sound

Oh the sound the sound of change

You're building it up
They're breaking it down
Want to give up
Keep holding your ground
You're turning it up
They're deaf to the sound

Oh the sound the sound of change

Well they try to put hands on my ears
Ooooooooooooo the sound
In my heart I'm still hearing it clear
Tell me why do they fear what is real
You can't stop what is already here

You're building it up
You're turning it up

You're building it up
You're turning it up

Ooooooooo oh oh oh oh
Ooooooooo oh oh oh oh
Ooooooooo oh oh oh oh
Ooooooo the sound the sound of change

Ooooooooo oh oh oh oh
Ooooooooo oh oh oh oh
