

Troubled Mind

Blackcar

Lord, I've been so unhappy everywhere I go
There's nowhere, no place that I know I can find
    Peace for my troubled mind
I took a boat to China, drifted, drifted to Mexico
But nowhere, no place can I ever ever ever find
    Peace for my troubled mind
But I had, I had me a girl, she didn't stay long
    She left me walkin' in the rain
Oh, how I loved my girl, ah but she did me so wrong

    She left me with troubles and pain
Oh Lord, I'm so tired, tired of travelin'
    Wherever four winds blow
    There's just nowhere
    No place that I could find
    Peace for my, my troubled mind
    Oh, peace for my troubled mind
    Oh, a little peace for my, my mind
