

Are You Ready for Love

Robbie Dupree

Broken widow
And fatherless child
I've turned my back on you
I missed the point here
I over analyzed it
Somewhere I missed the clues
Are you ready for love?
Are you ready for real emotion?
Are you too comfortable to join the revolution?
Oh, this love is revolutionary
When it's inside of you
It's just so simple
I never realized it
I never had a clue
Are you ready for love?
Are you ready for real emotion?
Are you too comfortable to join the revolution?
I fall down
I fall down to my knees
Fall down and weep
With joy
Are you ready for love?
Are you ready for real emotion?
Are you too comfortable to join the revolution?
The revolution
The revolution
The revolution
The revolution
(Are you ready for love?)
The revolution
(Are you ready for love?)
The revolution
(Are you ready for love?)
Are you too comfortable?
