

Let The Best Man Win

Louise Hoffsten

Dazzling colors came from the screen
I looked at the world like through Vaseline
In the state of great confusion
I came to the conclusion

[Chorus]

Let the best man win its the chance of your life
Let the game begin start rollin' the dice
And let the best man win it'll give you,
Give you all that life can bring
Lets roll and let the best man win.

A man with a slick face explained the rules
Gold,cars and TV sets are all approved
Hell take your life as admission
Give new through television.

[Chorus]

Spend all your money to succeed
Winning things you don't need
To bring it back to mother earth
She doesn't care who you are
If your meals are bones or caviar
You've always got a place reserved Ah.

Let the best man win its the chance of your life
Let the game begin start rollin' the dice
And let the best man win it'll give you,
Give you all that life can bring

Let the best man win its the chance of your life
Let the game begin start rollin' the dice
And let the best man win it'll give you,
Give you all that life can bring
Lets roll and let the best man win.
