Up into the Rafters

Fionn Regan

Harbor lights they swoon for you
Carved into my arms
Glass half full and tiger's scream
Comets crown your eyesSometimes waves get thrown at you
See if you still float
Pale white skin and lightening jaw [?]
It's all yours to steal
Body will shine when you're moving in time
To the rhythm, your bones
Fire like the summer
Cyclone is turning, wind it is howling
You're holding your hair prim
And singing your lungs out
Up into the rafters, oh
Up into the rafters, ohBody will shine when you're moving in time
To the rhythm, your bones
Fire like the summer
Cyclone is turning, wind it is howling
You're holding your hair prim
And singing eternal beauty
Within you, [?] sailing
Into the sun when the stars are fading
Up into the rafters, oh
The undertow it has no hold on
Your bones of fire
Your light is the level
I always knew that you'd go
Straight through the stratosphere
Up into the rafters, oh
Up into the rafters, oh
