

Love Stuck

Mother Mother

My feelings ran away
I didn't know how to treat them
Maybe if I believed them they'd have stayed
I hope they're somewhere safe
Living in a daydream
And singing to a song I couldn't play But if I saw them on the street I'd say
"My baby's come back to me" I've got my love stuck in my head, in my head
I've got my love stuck in my thoughts, in my thoughts
I've got to keep my love in my heart
I've got to keep my love in my heart
I've got my love stuck in my throat, in my throat
I left my love out in the cold, in the cold
I've got to give my love to my soul
I've got to give my love to my soul
And let go
My angel threw away
I didn't know how to keep her
Heaven knows I needed her to stay
I hope she spreads her wings
Slouching on a sunbeam
And dancing to a song I couldn't sing But if I saw her on the street I'd say
"My baby fly back to me" I've got my love stuck in my head, in my head
I've got my love stuck in my thoughts, in my thoughts
I've got to keep my love in my heart
I've got to keep my love in my heart
I've got my love stuck in my throat, in my throat
I left my love out in the cold, in the cold
I've got to give my love to my soul
I've got to give my love to my soul
And let go
And maybe it's just time, it's just time
That it takes, it's just time that it takes
But I don't wanna wait, I wanna love again today My feelings ran away
I didn't know how to feel them I've got my love stuck in my head, in my head
I've got my love stuck in my thoughts, in my thoughts
I've got to keep my love in my heart
I've got to keep my love in my heart
I've got my love stuck in my throat, in my throat
I left my love out in the cold, in the cold

I've got to give my love to my soul
I've got to give my love to my soul
And let go I've got to give my love to my soul
I've got to give my love to my soul
And let go
