Envious

Club Nouveau

Started off as friends, Now you say i did you wrong, I remember when, we were broke and friendship was so strong, Fulfilled our hopes and dreams, Did what they said could not be done, Now your envious, Hating me mode has you on the run, you smile in my face like everything is oh so cool, I've been fair to you, while in your heart you've been oh so cruel, family and friends blinded you to every fact, I was strong for you and helped you to get to where your at
Your so envious,
Spreading rumor all the time,
Your so envious,
Jealous in your heart and mind,
Your so envious,
Always trying to make right wrong,
Your so envious,
You should have helped me write this song
We wrote many songs like, Did you have to treat so bad, I remember jealousy the words we wrote were victims it's so sad, I don't understand how seeing eyes could be so blind, I let you in my dreams, Gave my heart, gave you all my time, we said we'd be one and everyone would play a part,
It was in your mouth, but never was it in your heart,
You told many friends, many lies, Deceitful truce,
Everything you say, you watch it, will soon come back to you
Your so envious,
Spreading rumor all the time,
Your so envious,
Jealous in your heart and mind,
Your so envious,
Always trying to make right wrong,
Your so envious,
You should have helped me write this song
Thought i'd write these words, Let the people know the deal, First was rumors, then jealousy, but envy too is real,
parting families causing hatred between friends, I can write about, but never can i make it in, always watch your back because someones always to the curb, trying to bring you down, talking about something bad they heard,
i know a guy named rob told someone that i did drugs, and he knows he's wrong because never will i get the urge,
Your so envious,
Spreading rumor all the time,
Your so envious,

Jealous in your heart and mind,
Your so envious,
Always trying to make right wrong,
Your so envious,
You should have helped me write this song
