

Hammerhead

Overkill

Feeling the pain as it rips through my brain
Twisting what's left of my mind
Tearing the same, this blood burning flame
Decaying all it can find Banging your head, stuck in the dread
Leaving the posers behind
Powers you see, the power you need
Nerves and bones we grind Hammer, hammerhead, hammer, hammerhead Knocked to the floor, left wanting more
Scars decorate your face
Playing the game, your never the same
The heat is melting this place Emotion and fire, you never tire
Running a death metal race
Knife in the back, guitar heart attack
Murder, rest my case Hammer, hammerhead, hammer, hammerhead No one can stop our way to the top
No one can get in the way
Necksnapping force taking its course
Keeping the dogs at bay Nailed to the wall, giving your all
We know that you ain't dead
We know your name, know why you came
Your a fucking hammerhead Hammer, hammerhead, hammer, hammerhead
Hammer, hammerhead, hammer, hammer
