Reckless

Devour the Day

Don't slow down
run from the sun and stay out all night and right now
i could be yours and you could be mine

out in the fray
we can make our escape if we run
why would we wait

we are reckless
we are reckless
we are young
we are fearless
finding our place in this world
as it's wasting away

with wide eyes
we come undone, we come unwound and time flies
let's get so high we never come down

out in the fray
why would we wait

we are young
finding our place in this world

and it's us against the world yea, it's us against the world
