Manifest Destiny

Guster

Bones are broken and the will is sunk How did everything get so fucked up? Do you want to change your mind? You can always change your mindYou and I could quit this scene Build a town and then secede Like an Adam and an Eve'Cause to the dreamers go the dreams But believers have the lead It's a frightening, frightening thingBorn to the land of opportunity Of manifest destinyDo you want to change your mind? You can always change your mindYou and I could quit this scene Build a town and then secede Like an Adam and an EveTo the dreamers go to dreams But believers have the lead It's a frightening, frightening thingThe moon and stars are ganging up on the sun (Rebellion)Everybody, the sky is falling down Friends and lovers, the world is coming downDown, down Down, down
