

Loser Gone Wild

Electric Light Orchestra

I don't mind the pain or the jokers' cold refrain
The days pass by so slowly, I count them all again
The silence of a basement, shades all closed at noon
Lie awake for fear of strangersDarkness comes on slowly, twilight is the ecstasy
Like a candle burnin' bright, shadows dance until the night
Empty rooms and chilling smiles, ooo
They go on for miles and milesBut in the evening when the sun goes down
Crawl from the shadows got to get into town
Where the music is playin' all across the night
And every cloud disappears from sight
There goes a loser loser, another loser gone
There goes another loser, another who's alone
There goes a loser loser, another loser gone wildI don't mind if violins don't play
I won't listen to them anyway
I don't care what people say
Some things just can't be arrangedBut in the evening when the sun goes down
Crawl from the shadows got to get into town
Where the music is playin' all across the night
And every cloud disappears from sight
There goes a loser loser, another loser gone
There goes another loser, another who's alone
There goes a loser loser, another loser gone wildOoo
AaaBut in the evening when the sun goes down
Crawl from the shadows got to get into town
Where the music is playin' all across the night
And every cloud disappears from sight
There goes a loser loser, another loser gone
There goes another loser, another who's alone
There goes a loser loser, another loser gone wildIcy fingers touching you
Silent voices calling too
What else is there to lose
I am here but where are you?But in the evening when the sun goes down
Crawl from the shadows got to get into town
There goes a loser
Loser
