Under These Lights

Xenia Ghali

A sea of souls and dancing daughters Different stories, different blood

All together dreaming

Wish everyone could see it

Waves of life colliding loveUnder these lights embracing all life

We are lost in within these beautiful sights

In these walls the world is so bright

Let's spread the warmth we found. under these lights

Under these lights. under these lights.

Let's spread the warmth we found

Under these lights. under these lights.

Let's spread the warmth we found

Under these lights. under these lights.

Let's spread the warmth we foundA field of hearts here in a moment

Beneath the sun, beneath the moon

All together beating

Wish everyone could feel it

Breathing beauty, living proofUnder these lights embracing all life

We are lost in within these beautiful sights

In these walls the world is so bright

Let's spread the warmth we found. under these lights

Under these lights. under these lights.

Let's spread the warmth we found

Under these lights. under these lights.

Let's spread the warmth we found

Under these lights. under these lights.

Let's spread the warmth we found...
