Oh What It Did To Me

Tanya Tucker

I saw you tonight
In her arms so tight
I watched as she held you tenderlyYou say when she held you
It did nothing to you
But oh, what it did to meYou say when she kissed you
You didn't feel a thing
Well, I felt enough for all threeYou want me to believe
It did nothing to you
But oh, what it did to meAnd I felt the warm tears
Roll slowly down my face
As I watched another
Slowly take my placeAnd now it's all over
You want me to forget
And pretend that things are like they used to beThat it was just a kiss
That did nothing to you
But oh, what it did to meYou want me to believe
It did nothing to you
But oh, what it did to me, to me
