

Deadlines & Diets

Girls Aloud

It's three a.m. and you still look gorgeous
My 'mornin' after' feelin's kickin' in
I hate to say but I'm feelin' nauseous
I put that down to too much ginI'm cool until reality
Hits me in the face and drops a phone in the tea
And you've left no number, left your wedding ring
There's nothing left to do but kick back and singI've seen it before
I'll see it again

A never ending story
Of deadlines, diets and devious menNow just when things are goin' groovy

I see the rain clouds comin' in
Wham-bam, my life's a disaster movie
But as I'm goin' down I'll grinI'm cool until reality
Hits me in the face, drops a phone in the tea
And you left no number, left your wedding ring
Nothing left to do but kick back and singI've seen it before
I'll see it again

A never ending story
Of deadlines, diets and devious menI've seen it before, yeah
I'll see it again

A never ending story
Of deadlines, diets and devious menI'm cool until reality
Hits me in the face and drops a phone in the tea
I'll see it again

A never ending story
Of deadlines, diets and devious menI've seen it before, yeah
I'll see it again

A never ending story
Of deadlines, diets and devious menI've seen it before, yeah
I'll see it again

A never ending story
Of deadlines, diets and devious menI've seen it before, yeah
I'll see it again

A never ending story
Of deadlines, diets and devious men
