Daydream

Wave

Sunshine, strawberry wine
A little taste of leather and lace
Color blind its all in my mind
Temporary insanity when everything is wrongIt's a perfect day for feelin' this way
It's a hell of a time
For speaking your mind
When nothing is as it seems daydreamCandy, sweet as can be
I'm so tall I'll crush 'em all
Higher, flying away
Wave goodbye to yesterday
When everything is wrongIt's a perfect day for feelin' this way
It's a hell of a time
For speaking your mind
When nothing is as it seems daydreamFor so long, I've been tired of the things I do
For so long all this weight up on my shoulders
For so long, I've been tired of the things I do
For so long, so longSunshine, strawberry wine
A little taste of leather and lace
Color blind, it's all in my mind
Temporary insanityIt's a perfect day for feeling this way
It's a hell of a time
For speaking your mind
When nothing is at it seemsIt's a perfect day for feeling this way
Its a hell of a time
For speaking your mind
When nothing is as it seems, daydream
