

The Lengths

The Black Keys

Tell me where you're goin or
What is going wrong
I felt you leavin'
Before you'd even gone Hold me now
Or never ever hold me again
No more talk
Can take me from this pain I'm in Pain I'm in See the moonlight shinin'
On your window pane
See it leave you
As faithful as it came Please yourself so you
Don't have to be afraid
Make amends
Or carry on another way
Another way Tell me what you were thinkin'
To treat somebody so
The care he took
The lengths to which he'd go The coals are hot to walk across,
Without your shoes
But in the end
Know that you got nothin' to lose
Nothin' to lose
