Green

Alex Lloyd

This house is your own, still living alone
It dont make you sad
But I think its good to be greenThe summer is gone and spring dont belong
The traces are here for long winter
I miss the green, it used to be cleanIf you wanna be free
Please dont fall for me
I could be anyone but your friendIf you open the door
Ill give a whole lot more
I could be anyone, anyone, yeahAssumption is good
Though not likelihood, my feeling is true
I want to be living with youThe truth it begins, were breathing it in
With shadows of doubt, in time we will
All miss the green, it used to be cleanIf you wanna be free
Please dont fall for me
I could be anyone but your friendIf you open the door
Ill give a whole lot more
I could be anyone but your friendAnyone, anyone
Anyone, nah, nah, nah, no
Anyone, anyone, anyone, yeahIf you wanna be free
Please dont fall for me
I could be anyone but your friendIf you open the door
Ill give a whole lot more
I could be anyone but your friendAnyone, anyone
Anyone, nah, nah, nah, no
Anyone, anyone, anyone, yeahSeeing is believing, the feeling is deceiving
You know its the truth
When you find that you cant talkLeaving on this all into chaos
Seeing is, feeling is, seeing is
Feeling is you, feeling is you, woah
No, no
