Green

Alex Lloyd

This house is your own, still living alone It dont make you sad But I think its good to be greenThe summer is gone and spring dont belong The traces are here for long winter I miss the green, it used to be cleanIf you wanna be free Please dont fall for me I could be anyone but your friendIf you open the door Ill give a whole lot more I could be anyone, anyone, yeahAssumption is good Though not likelihood, my feeling is true I want to be living with youThe truth it begins, were breathing it in With shadows of doubt, in time we will All miss the green, it used to be cleanIf you wanna be free Please dont fall for me I could be anyone but your friendIf you open the door Ill give a whole lot more I could be anyone but your friendAnyone, anyone Anyone, nah, nah, nah, no Anyone, anyone, anyone, yeahIf you wanna be free Please dont fall for me I could be anyone but your friendIf you open the door Ill give a whole lot more I could be anyone but your friendAnyone, anyone Anyone, nah, nah, nah, no Anyone, anyone, anyone, yeahSeeing is believing, the feeling is deceiving You know its the truth When you find that you cant talkLeaving on this all into chaos Seeing is, feeling is, seeing is Feeling is you, feeling is you, woah
