

The Wizard Blew His Horn

Hawkwind

The great hound barked
And the world turned white
The great hound sighed
And the forest died
The Wizard Blew His Horn
The Wizard Blew His HornThe snow snake hissed
And the world turned round
The snow snake grinned
In his fine cold sin
When The Wizard Blew His Horn
The Wizard Blew His HornThe horse wept blood
And the Earth did groan
The tall horse reared From a lake of tears
To seek a champion
To seek a championThe world was bleak
And the Earth did fear
The Wizard's Horn
With magic born
So it screamed for a champion
It screamed for a champion
