Not Enough Love

Kosheen

There's not enough, enough love
Enough thought for anybody
Tight as a drum
Sharp as they comeThere's not enough love for anybodySay it, play it tough it's gonna be, it's gonna beRough and ready, when you're thrown into touchThere's never enough love for anybodyNot enough, enough love
Enough thought for anybody
Tight as a drum
Sharp as they comeThere's not enough love for anybody
Not enough loveNot enough loveNot enough love, not enough love
There's not enough, enough love
Enough thought for anybody
Tight as a drum
Sharp as they comeThere's not enough love for anybodyNow it's down to us, not to rush
Not to push it's fragile, carefully
We fall into line, children first
When it gets to us, there just isn't anyNot enough love, enough love
Enough thought for anybody
Tight as a drum
Sharp as they comeThere's not enough love for anybody
Not enough loveNot enough love
