Sleeping Love

KEIKO

I fall out of view twisted in
What has come to be empty skin

Oh envision dreams that give you
Hope of bliss since this hollow city

Promise me that you will never forget

Your hand pulled away signaling
Reflect of indigo apathy
As an avalanche tumbling
Memoirs caught against gravity

Oh envision dreams that give you
Hope of bliss since this hollow
Cryptic city waits behind
Fighting through a desolate pride

Promise me that you will never forget

If you ever pass this lonely town
Fame once more this sleeping love
Oh you know
I wonâ€™t just slip away
Please donâ€™t go
I long for other days to come
You know I wonâ€™t give up
Devoid of a fight for who we are
Until the day we die

Though we change
As we watch the world go by
Please my love
Keep my love
