

Demons

Guster

My words confuse you
My eyes don't move a blink
'Cause it's easier sometimes
Not to be sincere Somehow I make you believe
Believe When I speak I'll cross my fingers
Will you know you've been deceived?
I find a need to be the demon
A demon cannot be hurt Honest is easy
Fiction's where genius lies
'Cause it's easier sometimes
Not to be involved Somehow I'll make you believe
Believe When I speak I'll cross my fingers
Will you know you've been deceived?
I find a need to be the demon
A demon cannot be hurt When I speak I'll cross my fingers
Will you know you've been deceived?
I find a need to be the demon
A demon cannot be hurt When I speak I'll cross my fingers
Will you know you've been deceived?
And I find a need to be the demon
A demon cannot be hurt
