Precious Thread

Introflirt

Itâ€™s the only time, want the lights on bright
May be my only choice, drowning out the noise
You know youâ€™ve broken me, I could never see
Such an enemy, sitting next to me

And Iâ€™ve never held a more precious thread
If only you wanted it instead

Someone elseâ€™s life, looking through their eyes
Ohhhh the mundane lives, turning back to skies

And Iâ€™ve never held a more precious thread
If only you wanted it instead

Iâ€™ve never held a more precious thread
Iâ€™ve never held a more precious thread
