

Fight It Out

Pat Benatar

I heard you say you're feelin' like a change now
Maybe, baby this could be arranged now
But I warn you that no exotic scenery
Will solve your problems or make you feel easy
You say you're happy but I see apprehension
That little laugh of yours doesn't hide the tension
The precious book you clutch so tightly in your hands
Won't help you sleep at night, won't iron out your plans
You gotta fight it out with your heart
You gotta fight it though it tears you apart
You gotta fight it out my friend
You gotta do it for yourself
You gotta say when
You ask advice then resent my observations
If I didn't care then I wouldn't make them
Can't change the past so why let it haunt you
Can paint the future but first you have to want to
You gotta fight it out with your heart
You gotta fight it though it tears you apart
You gotta fight it out my friend
You gotta do it for yourself
And you gotta say when
I can see how much you hurt inside
I know all about the tears you hide
You gotta fight it out with your heart
You gotta fight it though it tears you apart
You gotta fight it out my friend
You gotta fight it out with your heart
You gotta fight it though it tears you apart
You gotta fight it out my friend
You know that the lonely pay a price for love in the end
You know that the lonely pay a price for love in the end
It's always the lonely who pay a price for love in the end
