

Shame (Rerecorded)

Evelyn "Champagne" King

(J.H. Fitch and R. Cross)Shame
Burning, you keep my whole body yearning
    You got me so confused
        It's a shame
    Sometimes I think I'm going insane
But still I want to stayWrapped in your arms
    Is where I want to be
    I Want to be, want to be
        Wrapped in your arms
    That's my high, my highShame, ooh
My mother says you're playing a game
    And what you do to me is a
        Shame
    Ooh, gonna love you just the same
Song text taken from stlyrics.com
Mama just don't understandWrapped in your arms
    Is where I want to be
    I want to be, want to be
        Wrapped in your arms
    That's my high, my highI can't get enough, ooh baby
        Enough of that magic touch
        Love is in my heart
        Tearing the rules apart
So, why should I be ashamedOnly love can be to blame
    If we lose our love
        It's a shame
    Ooh, I wouldn't want to live with the pain
Gonna stay foreverWrapped in your arms
    Is where I want to be
    I want to be, want to be
        Wrapped in your arms
    That's my high, my high
    Only love can be to blame
        If we lose our love
        It's a shame
    Ooh, I wouldn't want to live with the pain
Gonna stay forever
    Oh, it's a shame
        Shame
