

I Should Tell You

Eighteen Visions

I watched the falling rain splash upon your face
I know those aren't your tears
You know it's me and where I've been
It's just circumstances, don't let her down So, I should tell you why it's so hard to tell you
You know it's me and where I've been and the million words I'm thinking
I burned my time today as I start to waste
You were my one and only and now, I don't know why You know it's me and where I've been
It's just the circumstances, don't let her down And I know what you're feeling tonight
And I know, soon everything will be fine
And I know what you're feeling tonight
And I know for now, you're mine
