Balam Acab

Your wisdom's in the ocean
Deep under the surface
Where it's hard to breathe
You are guiding me

And you're like a seed
Growing in everything
And you're like a seed
A flower opening

You're gentle
Like aspring rain yet you're sharp
As a sunrise
Your generosity is the air
All around me

And you're like a seed
Growing in everything
And you're like a seed
A flower opening
You are a part of me
