We Are One

Jena Irene

We are one, we are one here
We are one, we are one here
We are one, we are one here
We are one, we are one here
We are one, we are one here

Mining for diamonds, Iâ€™ve stumbled on gold
You made me feel I was half-way to hope
Found a piece of you, found a piece of me
I didnâ€™t need you here under my skin
But I feel you now like the Sun sinking in
All in spite of you, all in spite of me
Like a dream weâ€™re awake
Like a feeling we stay forever
Where we go, we go together

I guess they donâ€™t know us
We turn cities to dust
I see the walls disappear
We are one here
I see fire in your eyes
Never felt so alive
I see the walls disappear
We are one here!
We are one, we are one
I see the walls disappear
We are one here!

Youâ€™re my protection, immune to the fall
Donâ€™t leave this armor Iâ€™m takinâ€™ it all
I feel close to you
So youâ€™re close to me
Like a dream, weâ€™re awake
Like a feeling, we stay forever
Where we go, we go together

I guess they donâ€™t know us
We turn cities to dust
I see the walls disappear

We are one here
I see fire in your eyes
Never felt so alive
I see the walls disappear
We are one here!
We are one, we are one
I see the walls disappear
We are one here!

In this dream Iâ€™m awaking
And our hearts never breaking â€˜Cause we are one!

We are one, we are one here

I guess they donâ€™t know us
We turn cities to dust
We are one here
I see fire in your eyes
Never felt so alive
We are one here!
We are one, we are one
We are one here!

We are one, we are one here
