I Was Made for Sunny Days

The Weepies

I went to the market though it was threatening rain I was late to the station so I missed that train And the streets filled with umbrellas and we all looked the same But I'm the one who's waiting 'til the sun comes out again

I was made for sunny days
I made do with grey, but I didn't stay
I was made for sunny days
And I was made for you

Found a book you gave me
When we were first in bloom
When I thought that you might save me from the dark side of the moon Instead we both went walking through the shadows and the gloom
And we never did stop talking
And you still light up the room

Oh, the nights are longer
Oh, you make me stronger
And the late light lingers on the grass
And the nights are dark but then they pass
They don't seem so deep I'm still losing sleep but I don't mind, no I don't mind

Got you a winter jacket that our baby wears around And we chase him through the springtime and the sleeves drag on the ground And every hour we're working and work and play are bound And every day is Sunday
'cause the sun comes dancing down
