Save Yourself

My Darkest Days

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Im the devils son straight out of hell
And youre an angel with a haunted heartIf you were smart youd run and protect yourself
From a demon living in the darkTheres nothing to be gained cuz I can never change
And you can never understand
my sickness
Ill never understand my sicknessSave yourself
From a life full of lies
And heart full of pain and sorrowSave yourself
From the choices I make cuz nothing but failure follows me
Save YourselfYoure the perfect drug
When it hurts like hell Ive never needed anyone so much Theres no one else I love
And I curse myself
Cuz the right thing is to give you upIm overcome by shame
cuz I can never change
And you can never understand
my sickness
I dont understand my sicknessSave yourself
From a life full of lies
And heart full of pain and sorrowSave yourself
From the choices I make
cuz nothing but failure follows me
