

Genetic Emancipation

Darren Smith & Terrance Zdunich

Years, it's been so many years
Resenting the years and my heredity
Oh, I have hated and loved you
I have hidden behind you but I finally see
You, I've mistaken for destiny
But the truth is my legacy is not up to my genes
True, though the imprint is deep in me

It will always be up to me, up to me
Oh, free at last
Oh, I'm free at last
(Free at last)
(Find your way, find your way)
