

You Better Not Think About Me

Hebe Tien

English Translations:

I've been lonely for so long, and it's still not better.

Feels like the whole world is laughing at me.

How proud do you think I am? I'm vulnerable, okay?

Every time I meet you, I'm knocked over. After waking the sleeping iceberg, a calm escape.

You can always do it so easily.

A far away smile causes fierce waves.

I smell again the taste of boiling tears. Clearly, you love me very much. There's no reason we can't love til the end.

As long as you dare not be weak, why must we miss this?

There are still many dreams in the long night. You better not think about me.

When the time comes, you'll know how much it hurts.

The happiness then was so beautiful and hard to come by.

You can really just let go.

The beautiful dreams that just came true, a blink of the eye and it's broken.

I sincerely hope that you can really sleep well. Clearly, you love me the most. There's no reason we can't love til the end.

As long as you dare not be weak, why must we miss this?

There are many dreams in the long night. You better not think about me.

When the time comes, don't come and say you were wrong.

You better not think about me until you're crazy. Clearly, you still love me. There's no reason we can't love til the end.

As long as you dare not be weak, why must we miss this?

There will be many dreams in the long night. You better not think about me.

I'll wait for the night, listening to you say how much you love me. Chinese Lyrics:
