Blinded

Marya Roxx

Marya Roxx - BlindedOne day I just wondered
Is it real what I'm hearing
I just couldn't take it
Though it seemed like I was dreamingYou wanted me to be all that I'm not
You made me forget all that I've gotI should be blinded, blinded, blinded by the stars
I should be quiet, quiet, not say what's on my mind
I should be blinded, blinded, blinded by your charms
But I cannot be silent, silent - you can't control my lifeDon't you see your guilty
Guilty of destroying all our love
Your attentions - they are empty
You cannot hide them all behind your liesYou wanted me to be all that I'm not
You made me forget all that I've gotI should be blinded, blinded, blinded by the stars
I should be quiet, quiet, not say what's on my mind
I should be blinded, blinded, blinded by your charms
But I cannot be silent, silent - you can't control my lifeI could never be so lonely
Lonelier than I am feeling now
It seems like I'm the only
Only one who seems to careYou wanted me to be all that I'm not
You made me forget all that I've gotI should be blinded, blinded, blinded by the stars
I should be quiet, quiet, not say what's on my mind
I should be blinded, blinded, blinded by your charms
But I cannot be silent, silent - you don't control my lifeI should be blinded, blinded, blinded by the stars
I should be quiet, quiet, not say what's on my mind
I should be blinded, blinded, blinded by your charms
But I cannot be silent, silent - you don't control my life
Anymore
