If Only

Turn Off The Stars

Love, give me time
Need a moment to make up my mind
Light, light of day
I can watch you slowly fade away
Come on, love, open my eyes
Can't see past the lies

If only for a second chance with you
If only for a second glance at you

Love, would you calm me down?
I missed out on the here and now
Could peace light my way
Where'd you go, are you here to stay?
Come on, love, open my eyes
Can't see past the lies
