Terrific Distraction

Clint Crisher

Only talking to your friends
On the phone
When you're high
When you're so not alone
Telling lies, look into my eyes
It might hurt
It's only me baby
The lies we can fix
If you trust me
So pick up the phone
High on life when you're not alone
You've got me
I'm living in your home
So call meYou're a terrific distraction
It's not a healthy reaction
We deserve something real
Not somebody high, telling lies
Baby, you don't own me
You say that you love me
That's not love
That's an enemy
Saying bad things about me
You're not my friend
You're not my lover
You're a terrific distraction
It's not a healthy reactionBaby, you don't own me
You say that you love me
That's not love
That's an enemy
Saying bad things about me
You're not my friend
You're not my lover
You're a terrific distraction
It's not a healthy reactionLive in the now
Forget those things that's been said
Because you're
You're always in my headWell, you're a terrific distraction
It's not a healthy reaction

Not someone high, telling lies
You don't own me
You say that you love me
Well, that's not love
That's an enemy
That's not a friend
It's not a loverYou're a terrific distraction
And it's not a healthy reaction
No, no, you don't own me baby
I own me, I own me
Do you see it baby
I own me
So pick up the phone
High oh life, when you're not alone
Baby, you don't own me
You say that you love me
That's not love
That's an enemy
Saying bad things about me
You don't own me
