Never Surrender

Like a Storm

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

You put a wall in my way and I'll break it
You got something to say I can take itDid you think that a few little words would Take (me) Break (me) I don't care(Oh) I still believe There is something here for me
(Oh) As long as I breathe No, I will never surrender No, I will fight foreverNo, there is no turning back from here I will never surrenderI've given way too much to just give up nowStood up too many times to just Fall back downAnd all the shit that I'm facing nowIn the end I can say I've made it through hell.
