

Airplane (feat. Matt Heart)

Jhuryll Phoenix

(Verse 1)

From the reflection of the blade, you can see yourself
Anxiety sets in, as you begin to bleed yourself
But salvation from the cuts, aint gunna free yourself
Your demise is not the answer, I hear ya scream for help.

No one should judge and no one should ever hurt you
He calls himself your father but he really don't deserve you

What kinda man becomes a dad
Holds your hand and makes a plan
To demand what you command
And when he can, he'll take a chance

To try and steal all your purity
But he cant bring you down to his level, invincibility
Just shut out his window and ill open a door for you to flee
And don't ever come back to whatever it is you used to be

I was always told, "Real Eyes, Realize, Real Lies"
The truth you fight whats inside wont stop the crime
You don't have to cry no more, just come stand by my side
And grab onto these wings, and what us as we fly

(Hook)

If i had wings, like an airplane, you and I
We could fly away from here
(Fly away, fly away)
If i had wings, like an airplane, you and I
We could fly away from here
Close your eyes and fly

(Verse 2)

Where do you go, when your standing alone
On the road, you back to you home...
Cuz back at your home, no one believes ya
And with time after time, and fight after fight...

But now your heart is racing, cuz your facing all of your demons
With all your accusations, but his manipulations got everyone

Forgetting the case, staring in space
So much frustration got you wanna leave the whole situation
Forget the explanation

Down on your knees, praying to the heavens above
"I have faith and believe, so where is the love?
With all these cries at night I feel its never enough
I'm bouta grab this knife, and cut this muthafucka up!"

Cause ill never forget, ill never forgive
Ill always regret, letting him live
So send me someone, that'll be strong
With wings on their back, so i don't relapse
Just fly away, just like an airplane

(Hook)

If i had wings, like an airplane, you and I
We could fly away from here
(Fly away, fly away)
If i had wings, like an airplane, you and I
We could fly away from here
Close your eyes and fly

Like I, I just wanna tell you, I'm not like most guys...
There's something about me that's different
Lemme show you
Close your eyes
(Close you eyes and fly)

(Verse 3)

Uh, what is that, in the sky, a bird, a plane?
Naw, its just us flying, flying away

Said you needed someone to take you away from the storm
Lemme be your ray of light ill never do you no harm
With all the pain that youve been through
Ill never let no on hurt you
You rubber and im your glue
So there words wont stick to you

But if you come stick with me
Ill treasure you mentally
This wasn't accidentally, cuz you know were meant to be

You secret is out, but no one will listen
You bodies forever damaged because the collision

But i got ambition, and i'm on a mission
To give you assistance, if you come with me, we can fly like a griffon

So were not going down, no need to ever go backwards
Just open your eyes, were flying high from here on after
I'm like a jet engine with no delay in the answer
So open your arms and we can go faster

(Hook)

If i had wings, like an airplane, you and I
We could fly away from here
(C'mon fly, c'mon fly, fly away)
If i had wings, like an airplane, you and I
We could fly away from here
Close your eyes and fly
