Some say I got skills to rock the house down
But what they don't know
Is that I've always been down
Been down to rock the house down
So know I'm gonna shine on this track
And everybody knows you best step back
Cause I'm ready to attack with these macs
So what I'm a hard core junkie
I'm comin with a flow that everybody knows
And if you don't you betta get to knowin
Cause I'm comin straight flowin
Ill leave your ass rowin
Bring it back you're six feet deep
That's where you'll hear this phat ass beat
I said bring it back you're six feet deep
That's where you'll hear this phat ass beat
Throw your fist in the sky
Swing'em from side to side
And if you're ready to get fucked up tonight
Then you best realize 2x
Wait, wait one minute
How many times do I have to fuckin bring it
To win it this is how I do it
How many times do I have to fuckin prove it
So can I get a witness
For when I get some of this
And can I get some of that
But not like that
Talkin shit is a waste of breath
You're walkin straight into certain death
Bring it back you're six feet deep
That's where you'll hear this phat ass beat
I said bring it back you're six feet deep
That's where you'll hear this phat ass beat
Chorus
Neva said I wanted this
But now I'm gonna take it
You know I'm neva fakin
When I got my mind on my dick

You know I'm livin life
Day to day
Face to face
Until I take it to the grave
Kick it through your headrest
Slam it in your phat chest
Ya know you want this
You need this
I'm first on your list
And now what's
Mine is mine
And yours is mine
Cause when I'm whoppin your ass
You know I'm first in line
Bring it back
Bring it back
Bring it back you're six feet deep
That's where you'll hear this phat ass beat
I said Bring it back you're six feet deepChorus
