

Damnation

Morbid Angel

Evil minds grievous sins
Pagan lives have no place for law
Twisted worship exhume the dead
Minds unite for evil causeDeath corrodes the book once strong
Evil lord destroys his foes
Plague has spread throughout the land
Revelations have begunCall of evil's mastermind
Christians flock to the beast
Burning crosses burn souls
Exterminate the altar of lawsAtrocities of a new Reich
Holy war and holocaust
God weeps and turns his back
The time is right to destroy the worldDamnation
Fill the world with plague
Force of devastation
Tyranny from aboveChurning cities lust so profane
Driving the will to destroy
Crippling powers I'm forced to partake unholy rituals
Crimes of a world barely aliveMelting debauchery
Ashes to ashes, so must I be
Lost in this miseryThere's nothing left here for me
I know of no other way
Even death cannot change my ways
I'm first in the line
To hell we shall goCalls of evils mastermind
Christians flock to the beast
Burning crosses burn souls
Time is right to destroy the world
