Damnation

Morbid Angel

Evil minds grievous sins Pagan lives have no place for law Twisted worship exhume the dead Minds unite for evil causeDeath corrodes the book once strong Evil lord destroys his foes Plague has spread throughout the land Revelations have begunCall of evil's mastermind Christians flock to the beast Burning crosses burn souls Exterminate the altar of lawsAtrocities of a new Reich Holy war and holocaust God weeps and turns his back The time is right to destroy the worldDamnation Fill the world with plague Force of devastation Tyranny from aboveChurning cities lust so profane Driving the will to destroy Crippling powers I'm forced to partake unholy rituals Crimes of a world barely aliveMelting debauchery Ashes to ashes, so must I be Lost in this miseryThere's nothing left here for me I know of no other way Even death cannot change my ways I'm first in the line To hell we shall goCalls of evils mastermind Christians flock to the beast Burning crosses burn souls
